OUR CITY VIBES

The downtown vibrancy is situated between two beautiful lakes making for a scenic and energetic experience.

STATE CAPITOL & CAPITOL SQUARE

Madison is home to the nationally-known Dane County Farmers' Market and to more than 100 restaurants, cafés and bars, making it a foodie paradise. Even more, you can access many of our local restaurants by walking, biking, driving or boating. While downtown, enjoying dinner, you can catch a show at the Overture Center for the Arts or the Orpheum or Majestic Theater.

UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN-MADISON

The University of Wisconsin-Madison is a Big Ten university, consistently ranked among the top ten research universities in the country. The campus offers thousands of acres of natural area to explore, a beautiful Memorial Union, including a famous outdoor terrace along Lake Mendota where you can learn to sail, enjoy a beer and brat or listen to live music. UW-Madison sports offer a chance to participate in Madison traditions like tailgating before games, enjoying the UW-Marching Band, "Jump Around" after the third quarter of football games and meeting Bucky Badger. A mantra known as the Wisconsin Idea means there is an ongoing commitment to connect the university with the rest of the state. There are university museums open to the public, outreach events, science camps and more for people of all ages to enjoy!

Attending a live Badger event is a one-of-a-kind experience, whether you're jumping around at Camp Randall or enjoying a volleyball game at the Field House or a musical interlude from the UW-Marching Band during a basketball game at the Kohl Center, you're in for a classic Madison experience not to be missed.

LIFESTYLE: LOCAL IMPACT: GLOBAL

In Madison, we love living locally. We eat at local restaurants, shop at local boutiques, participate in local festivals, enjoy local beer and support local teams.

Our world-class Big Ten university produces incredible research, our amazing healthcare facilities offer incredible care and our thriving bioscience businesses contribute innovation that benefits people worldwide. We love our local lifestyle and are proud of our global impact.

OUR FOODIE PARADISE

LOCAL FARE & FOOD TRUCKS

You can find restaurants that are uniquely Madison around almost any corner downtown and around many areas in Madison. State Street, Monroe Street and Atwood Ave are a few favorites. Food trucks are also a popular indulgence in Madison. You can find them on the Capitol Square, near the Memorial Union and scattered throughout the city. From famous cheese curds to Mediterranean perfection to sweet treats and much more, these food trucks also make pop-up appearances throughout the city and surrounding communities. Don't forget to try Babcock ice cream, created right in Madison and served throughout our community.

LOCAL BREWS

Cheers! Whether toasting to a Badger win with a local brew or meeting friends for a craft cocktail, our city nightlife includes sports bars, craft beer destinations and city patios with great views. Local bands, shuffleboard, darts and more provide entertainment.

Our lakes provide Madisonians with the chance to recharge and enjoy nature, take on new adventures and enjoy the city views from a different perspective. We paddleboard, kayak, fish and swim in our lakes. If you don't have your own vessels, there are plenty of places with many rental options, including paddleboards, kayaks, canoes, pontoon boats and more. If you prefer to sit back, you can enjoy dinner and drinks on a Betty Lou Cruise or perch yourself at The Edgewater Hotel and take in the waterscape. You can see our famous capitol, Monona Terrace, Memorial Union Terrace and more from our lakes, the views facing the city rival those overlooking the water.

FACT: You can find beautiful works of art from local artists at locations throughout the Fitchburg area.

Fitchburg is ideally nestled between Madison and sprawling farmlands. With its close proximity to UW-Madison, the State Capitol and Dane County Regional Airport, Fitchburg offers the best of city and rural life. Vibrant neighborhoods and urban districts are surrounded by family farms, community parks and world-class bike trails. Excellent educational opportunities, environmentally progressive developments and an award-winning bicycle community are just a few of the reasons why residents love calling Fitchburg home.

From international musicians and artists to local food and parties in the park, Fitchburg has its fair share of cultural experiences. You don't have to travel far—and you can do so on two wheels—to quench your thirst for art, music, food and craft cocktails.

Fitchburg's summer concert series is one of the city's premier community events. You might enjoy steel drum bands, jazz, country, rock, latin, blues and more! The kids can play at the Splash Pad or Dream Park or they can dance and sing along with the music.
